Play Park; Sue Walsh has spoken with the company who supplies a type of astro turf. The company supply two types of turf. These are long and short grass simulations. The company representative has promised to give Sue a quote on 22nd November. And this can be discussed at the next meeting. Sue has spoken to Record playgrounds re a picnic/youth shelter as requested by the youths who attended the October meeting. The main problem is where to site this shelter.

Appeal by Mr Ibbotson.there is no further information on this matter.

Street Lights light out opposite croft Road end on Brigg Lane

Trees on Drax Road No further information has been received on this matter. Mike Harrison –Tree Officer at SDC-is still waiting to hear from the County Council.

Lorries using Brigg Lane; there have been more lorries using Brigg Lane. The drivers using their Sat Navs possibly create the problem.

Planning

Stockhill Cottage detached dwelling; the Parish Councils concern over parking and delivery of goods to be expressed to the planning department.

Approved Detached dwelling on land to the side of High Gables Brigg Lane

Approved; Conversion of the barn at 10 Brigg Lane

Approved; erection of three dwellings and five garages at 10 Brigg Lane

Site at 62 Brigg Lane; The Parish Council approved the name Long Acre for this site.

The planning appeal for Meadowfield has been granted.

Apple Blossom Farm: Chestercourt Lane is suffering from the constant use by heavy lorries to this site. The Owners of the site have been given 7 days notice to state their intentions on the matter, the clerk to speak to the Enforcement Officer for an update

Cobblewood Farm The formal date for action is 21 November 2006

Flooding on Brigg Lane: letter from Colin Pearce at Yorkshire Water.

Correspondence;

Letter requesting support from Parish Councils for local Post Offices

E-mail from Chris Ryan re Mosquito (low sound device which can only be heard by young people) for possible use at Village Shops. The clerk to speak to the Anti-Social behaviour Officer for more details. The Parish Council felt that the use of this was a good idea but we concerned whether the device could be turned on and off. The school bus stops at the local shops and this could cause discomfort to children waiting for the bus.

Newsletter; the next newsletter will be issued in January. Judith Harrison has agreed to deliver it for the Parish Council.

Village Hall: there has been no answer from the Village Hall Committee Concerning the trees on the Village Hall frontage.

Christmas Tree Paul Bulmer felt that the village should have Christmas decorations and offered to supply a Christmas tree for the chapel. The clerk to contact Fiona Fenton on the matter.
